She married EDWIN THOMAS VINCENT, son of JOHN VINCENT and FRANCES HUTCHINGS. He was born 10 Oct 1880 in Cape Island, Newfoundland, and died 05 Sep 1967 in St. John's , Newfoundland.

(2) ALBERT FREDERICK BLAKE, Abt. 1979, Presbyterian Church, Sun City Center, Florida, USA; b. Oct 1901, Rochester, New York; d. Abt. 1987, Sun City Center, Florida, USA.

Notes for CASSANDRIA ALVINA VINCENT:

After finishing school at Cape Island, Cassie taught for one year at Greenspond, Newfoundland.

Cassandra left Cape Island in late summer 1928. Nita Vincent (Gibbons) remembered Cassie being home to Cape Island for a visit with Aunt Sophie one summer about 1937 or 38; during church service on Sunday, Sophie played a gospel song and Cassie sang. Cassie was a trained singer; she was also an organist. Cassie visited home (Newfoundland) every few years, often with Aunt Sophie, but sometimes alone. After she married Charlie, they made one trip home together but she did not visit Cape Island again until the first-ever Cape Island Reunion in 1989. She and Charlie had no children. About ten years after Charlie died, Cassie (Sandi) remarried to Albert Blake in Florida.

A nurse by profession, including 10 years in operations support as a scrub nurse in New Jersey, in retirement she volunteered with ambulance service, Good Samaritans, and singing societies and churches in the Sun City Center area of Florida.

Rex was introduced to Cassie by his mother, Nita, at the 1989 Cape Island Reunion. While on a vacation to Florida in March, 2002, Rex and Marge visited Cassie to bring news and greetings from his mother, and since then they have communicated regularly by email, telephone and postal service. Rex's sister, Lucy, paid a visit to Cassie when she and her family were vacationing in Florida in 2005. Rex and Marge visited her again while on vacation in 2006, 2007 and 2008. On the 2007 visit, Rex asked Cassie about how she came to move to the USA etc., for the record. The following notes are from that chat.

Aunt Sophie was working in the office of a Dr. Matthews in Hoboken, New Jersey, when she came home to Cape Island for a visit the summer that Cassie reached 19 years of age. Cassie had graduated from school and, that summer, she was working as a clerk at the FPU Union Store on Cape Island that was operated by her Uncle Ezra Vincent (Sophie's brother and Rex's grandfather). Sophie encouraged young Cassie to return to New Jersey with her to go into nurse's training. The Steam Ship Nerissa was operating between St. John's, Halifax and New York (the Red Cross Line; registered owners were the New York, Newfoundland Steamship Co.) at the time. It took them six days from St. John's to New York on the Nerissa; then they took the tube train to Jersey City. Dr. Matthews was involved with the Fairmont Hospital, a private hospital there, and Cassie was to go into training immediately, the next day after she arrived. She was involved in the training for 2.5 years, and took the Operating Room Head Nurse job while still a student. She spent eight years working in the operating room. One of her nursing colleagues was Adelaide Velma-Costello, who was also a singer and had her own studio. Cassie described her as a true coloratura. During their mid-day breaks each day, they used to go to Adelaide's. She remembered being at the studio one day "eating a piece of celery" when Ms. Velma-Costello sang "The Bell Song" from Lakme. Adelaide offered to be Cassie's "voice" coach, and from there grew her great interest in singing and music. As a result of that interest, she met Charles Reitz, who was a professional violinist in the Jersey City orchestra, and leader of his own group, which played dinner and dance music on various ships on cruises, among other things. Drawn together by their mutual interest in music and singing, they fell in love and married.

Cassie was offered an opportunity to work in the office of Dr. Harold Franklyn, where she served as office manager / head nurse for him, his brother, Lewis, and his son, Richard, for 23 years. During this same period, she also worked for Prof. Sam Cooperstein (who shared offices with the Franklyns), who was head doctor for medical services for the two tunnels connecting New York and New Jersey. Cassie also served as X-ray technician during this period. In 2007, she mentioned that she still hears from the son's wife, still living in the suburbs of New Jersey. The three "Drs." Franklyn have passed on.

In 1965, Cassie and Charles moved to Florida and settled at Sun City Center, a new town just getting started by Del Webb. When Charles died in 1969, she was left alone, and lonely. He had little time to enjoy his retirement years in Florida. She looked for work but couldn't get any as a nurse, so she went to work for the company that was developing Sun City Center; she also worked part-time in a drug store on the cash register. Then one night after she got home, she received a call from Dr. Wentzell. He offered her a job similar to the one she had with Dr. Franklyn in New Jersey at about $100 per week to start. She was thrilled; it was 3 times the rate at the drug store. She did everything by herself, answer the phone, collect the bills, bookwork, and nursing; after a few years, a nursing assistant was hired to help her, her now good friend Doris Healey, R.N. Cassie continued to help with x-ray work, blood work, etc. Eventually, a third person was hired to do the bookwork and collect the money, etc. She continued this job until into her 70's she eventually retired (resigned) at about age 72; at that time she was earning about $1000 per month and very proud of it. During this period, she had met Al Blake, who became her second husband ten years after Charlie's death. Al served for several years as Chief of Emergency Services in Sun City Center.

Notes for CHARLES REITZ:

Charlie and Cassie moved from New Jersey to Florida in 1965; Charlie died 4 years later, in the early Fall, 1969. Charlie was a professional musician, especially violin. His favorite violin was built in 1760 in France. Charlie bought it originally from his music teacher in New Jersey; after his death, Cassie took the violin back to New Jersey and sold it to one of Charlie's musician friends. In Florida, Charlie played violin in the symphony in Tampa, and he also played violin in the Sun City Center Symphony. While living in Sun City Center, Charlie, Cassie and a female friend of theirs, Mrs Stark, sometimes performed at functions as the Stark-Reitz Trio.

Charlie had two sisters, both teachers. His father was a violinist and pianist. Charlie followed in his father's footsteps and was playing operatic concert solos when he was only 14 years old.

Charlie also had a full head of natural wavy hair.

During his illness, Cassie stayed with him continually in his hospital room, and slept in a chair for about five weeks. She was with him when he died, and remembered big tears flowing out of his eyes and down his cheeks as she talked to him only moments before he closed his eyes for the last time.

More About CHARLES REITZ:

Cause of Death: Cancer

Medical Information: Initially lung cancer, for which he had surgery and related treatments in a Tampa hospital. He felt very good for a while, and got back playing his violin. Then the cancer returned in other locations.

Marriage Notes for CASSANDRIA VINCENT and CHARLES REITZ:

After they married, Charlie and Cassie rented a house in Ridgewood, New Jersey, and they lived in it until they moved to Sun City Center, Florida. Charlie's music business had him spending a lot of time on cruise ships in the Caribbean, so by 1965 he had an urge to be living in warmer climate and he and Cassie decided to move to Florida.

Notes for ALBERT FREDERICK BLAKE:

Albert was an accountant by profession; for many years, he was the volunteer Head of Emergency Response Services in Sun City Center, Florida, USA; he also served on the Hillsborough County EMS; he resigned in November / December, 1986, because of illness. Al was a 32nd degree Mason.

Al was very athletic, and loved his sports. He loved baseball; was a bowler; his favorite sport was golf.

Notes for EDGAR HENRY GIBBONS:

Edgar and Ellen moved away from Cat Harbour to Port Union, Trinity Bay, Newfoundland, in 1918. When son Percy enlisted in the Royal Newfoundland Regiment in May 1918, they were still living in Lumsden South; when he was discharged in 1919, they were living in Port Union.

Notes for ELLEN EMMA HOYLES:

OBITUARY (Fisherman's Advocate, October 27, 1961, page 11) .... Mrs Ellen (Hoyles) Gibbons

" Death came peacefully at 8:30 p.m., October 14 (1961), to Mrs Ellen Gibbons, aged 87 years and 3 months, at the home of her daughter, Port Union ... (Naomi Duffett, with whom she resided.)

Mrs. Gibbons had been confined to her bed for the past two months.

Her husband, Mr. Edgar Gibbons, died nine years ago. Although the loss of her dear husband meant loneliness and sorrow, she still continued to be quite happy and cheerful and always loved to have her fammily, especially her grandchildren, visit her.

Mrs. Gibbons was a pioneer resident of this town, having moved here from Lumsden with her family in 1918.

She is survived by her son James at St. John's; four daughters, Ella (Mrs Harry Hayward), Port Union; Zeta (Mrs William Coates), Virtue (Mrs. Wilfred North), both of Halifax; and Naomi (Mrs. Dougald Duffett), with who she resided; a brother, John Hoyles, Pound Cove; and a sister (Mrs. Caroline Cooze), Wesleyville; 26 grandchildren and 38 great-grandchildren.

It is sad to note her grandson, Junior Gibbons, son of Mrs. Maggie and the late Pearce Gibbons, was accidently killed at Halifax the day his grandmother passed away.

The funeral service for Mrs. Gibbons was conducted at her home by William J. Prince, circuit supervisor for Jehovah's Witnesses in central Newfoundland, and was largely attended.

Burial was in the Jehovah's Witnesses cemetery at Bonavista. The hymn "Forever with the Lord" was sung at the graveside.

A kind lady, who was always in her home, will be sadly missed by her family and friends. To the bereaved family of Mrs. Gibbons and the family of her grandson, sincere sympathy is extended in their bereavement. "

A longtime educator and the first guidance counsellor in Newfoundland. He was one of four children of Andrew and Gladys Ford. He grew up in Bennett's Cove, Wesleyville, where his family moved after leaving Swain's Island.

In 1938-39, he attended Memorial University College, St. John's; then returned home to teach for a year; then went to Quirpon on the Northern Peninsula, where he taught for two years. Then, he returned again to teach in Wesleyville.

After he and Alma Burry married in 1948, he moved to Grand Bank and taught for a year. In 1950, William and Alma returned to St. John's, where he finished his undergraduate degree at Memorial University. Afterwards, he taught at Curtis Academy while his wife, Alma, taught at Macpherson.

In the summers of 1957, 1958 and 1959, he travelled to New York to complete a master's degree at Columbia University. Subsequently, he took a job with the United Church Board of Education as the province's first guidance counsellor, and worked out of United Collegiate in St. John's.

In 1963m he became principal of St. Andrew's school in St. John's, where he remained until his retirement in 1976. His wife, Alma, retired from Macpherson the same year.

To help finance his education, William worked at many summer jobs, including as a steward and a waiter with the Newfoundland Railway, replacing acetylene lights in the lighthouses in Labrador, at a fish plant, loading pit props at night, and on the highroads.

Notes for CAPTAIN FRANK JOHNSON COLLINS:

Frank was the fourth child of William and Emma. About one year after he was born at Alder Harbour, the family moved to Carmanville, a safer and better harbour for boats and schooners. Frank attended school there and received his elementary education. However, the Collinses were fishermen who owned schooners, so Frank was introduced to marine life when he was very young, maybe six years old or so. When only 18 years old, he had to take charge of his brother's schooner, the "Tritonia", when his brother became ill (and shortly afterwards died as a young man). From then to the end of his career, Frank sailed the world's seas, commanding several schooners and other larger vessels. Once, he was shipwrecked in mid-Atlantic, and after several days was picked up by the S.S. Torne and taken to Carthage, Spain. He also served his country by doing his duty during World War 2. At home, he served his community in municipal affairs and was a member of Emmanuel United Church.

Notes for MANUEL STOKES:

Manuel celebrated his 92nd birthday in year 2000. To quote from Robert Tulk in the Gander Beacon of October 23, 2000, as follows: "Manuel... was a very active 92. At an age when most people are ready for a rockling chair, he still visits relatives and friends .... He has an excellent memory. He can remember as a small boy, running around outside without boots, because there wasn't any money to buy them. He got his first pair of new boots when he went fishing with his Uncle Phil. He was 11 years old. .... .

...One year in February, when he was 22, he would walk and run to Lumsden. Then he walked most of the way into the woods, cut 300 10-foot lengths of firewood for Gideon Gibbons (his skipper for the coming fishing season). Then he would walk out of the woods, and walk back home to Cape Freels, a total of 20 miles, often getting home after dark -- all done for no pay.

Mr Stokes went to work in the lumber woods at Millertown at 16. He continued to work in the woods, in different places, every year until he was around 60 years old. His average day's work, rain or shine, was three cords of wood. Even after the day's work, he helped the cook with the dishes after the evening meal.

During the summer, he fished for cod; 12 summers at Lumsden with Mr. Gibbons (Gideon). Later he got his own boat and gear, and started fishing at the Cape. He made ten trips to the ice fields, four of them with Abram Kean.... "

He married MARGARET GOODYEAR Aft. Jun 1919, daughter of URIAH GOODYEAR and ELIZABETH ABBOTT. She was born Abt. 1905 in Cat Harbour, Newfoundland, and died Unknown.

Notes for PIERCE GIBBONS:

Pierce or Percy. During World War I, he enlisted in the Royal Newfoundland Regiment (Service number 5171) in St. John's on May 18, 1918, the same day as Caleb Gibbons. He demobilized at St. John's on July 9, 1919, after 1 year and 53 days; for the duration, his rank was "Private". On enlisting, he stated his "Trade" as fisherman, and religion as "Methodist". His home address was Lumsden South. On discharge, he settled in Port Union, where his family had moved from Lumsden.

After enlisting, he signed an "Allotments" form to make payments of 50 cents per day from his pay, effective July 1, 1918, to his mother, Mrs Edgar Gibbons, of Lumsden South.

During his thirteen months in the Service, Percy served "overseas" in France and Germany. After his discharge, he was paid $70.00 on July 11, 1919, as the first payment due him on account of the "War Service Gratuity". When Percy enlisted, he was described as 5 feet 7.5 inches tall, 141.5 pounds, with chest 36.5 inches when fully expanded. On his discharge, he was described as 5 feet 9 inches tall, with light hair, fair complexion and gray eyes; he was of "medium" figure.

Percy was attested for General Service with the Royal Newfoundland Regiment from 18-5-1918. He embarked from St. John's for "overseas" on H.M.H. "Columbella" on July 22, 1918, first to Halifax and then to England.. He subsequently was moved from the 2nd battalion of the Regiment, Winchester, to the 1st battalion of the Regiment. He then embarked from Southampton on 23 November 1918.

Percy disembarked ( in France) on 28 November 1918 and joined the "Battery" on 5 January 1919. On 22 April 1919, he left Rouen Camps, embarked at Havre on the same day and disembarked at Southampton on the next day 23 April, and proceeded directly that day to Hazeley Down Camp, Winchester. The Medical Report signed on 29 April 1919 stated in the margin: "He complains of no disability". His health was deemed to be A(I) on "repatriation". On 22 May 1919, he embarked on the "Corsican" from Liverpool bound for St. John's, and reported to Headquarters there on 1 June 1919. He was paid a Clothing Allowance of $60.00 on discharge on 23 June 1919. His Statement of Service said he enlisted on 18-5-1918 and was discharged officially on 25-6-1919, plus 14 days, for total days of Military Service of 418. While he was "with the Battery" between January 5, 1919, and April 22, 1919, he presumably spent time in both France and Germany, since he claimed this on a discharge form.

He married JANE BUTLER. She was born 19 Nov 1903, and died Aft. 1948.

Notes for NABOTH GIBBONS:

The cause of Naboth's death was heart failure. He was all ready to come home by plane, had his clothes packed and tickets bought for the morrow's flight. He said "I will go down to the Union Hall to see Mr. Green and pay my dues and if I have time left I will go to the park and have a row." He went out in the row boat and one of the policemen on shore noticed a man in a boat rowing with one oar. He turned his head a moment when someone yelled "man overboard". He jumped in his boat and quickly reached the spot. He had to dive eight times in order to find and recover the body. Artificial respiration was applied for 45 minutes, when the doctor pronounced him dead. (This was part of an obituary in The Fisherman's Advocate, July 31, 1948, page 6.)

Notes for GLENN KENNETH TEMPLEMAN:

When Glenn was born, his mother got to Brookfield Hospital from Lumsden, but Ralph was away on the schooner Carl Strong. Dr. McDonald told her she wasn't ready to have the baby that night, and that he'd be back to see her the next day. A few hours later, she told the nurse, Audrey Hatcher (Manning), then a young 25 year old nurse, that her water broke. Audrey checked her and said you're having your baby now, and they wheeled her down to the case room. One push later and out popped Glenn, 6 pounds and 2 ounces. From the hospital, they called Nita Gibbons at Lumsden (the only phone available in Lumsden at the time). Nita called the Newtown post mistress to inform Muriel's mother, and also then forwarded the message to Ralph "at sea".

Notes for KIMBERLEY GLENYS GIBBONS:

Born in the Grace General Hospital, St. John's, Newfoundland, shortly after 5 P.M. on December 2, 1966. The doctor, Gerald Kean, told Rex to go home and get out of their way. As Rex was unlocking the door to the apartment at 313A Empire Avenue, the telephone was ringing. It was Dr. Kean saying, you have a baby girl, and you can come back now. It was a little different in 1966, and fathers did not normally attend to the mother during the birth process.

Marriage Notes for GLENN TEMPLEMAN and KIMBERLEY GIBBONS:

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Sung Min Jung (his third ceremony since he became a Minister). The bridal party included Matron of Honor Tracey Kean, junior bridesmaid Chelsea Kean, and bridesmaids Carina Jardine, Karen Sheppard, Emily Gibbons, and Darleen Kelloway; Best Man Kevin Robbins, Groomsmen Duke Dyke, Glen Humphries, Vince Gibbons, and Todd Stokes. The groom and the bride's father wore seal skin vests and ties made by Vogue Furriers, St. John's. The organist was Beverly Fifield. Rick Abbott of Musgrave Harbour sang two solos. The reception was held at the Seagull Lounge, Wesleyville; about 375 people attended, the biggest wedding to be held at the Seagull to that time. The weather was sunny and cold (reached about minus 7 Celsius on Friday night), with a small sprinkling of snow on the ground. On Sunday, there was more snow, followed by heavy rain and wind, which made for a hard drive back to St. John's for those visiting for the wedding. All arrived home safely.
