Canon Stanley Andrews officiating. Arrangements of pink and white spring flowers decorated the church.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. William C. McCallum, was in a gown of pink shantung, the bodice having a matching lace jacket. Her veil of pink tulle illusion was held by a bonnet of pink silk shantung and lace, and she carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and pink sweetheart roses.

Mr. Brian Sutton acted as best man for Mr. Turnbull, and the ushers were Mr. Claude Prefontaine and Mr. Bruce Peterson.

Mrs. Turnbull, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gown of aqua silk crepe, with a coral tulle hat, matching accessories, and a corsage bouquet of peach Sweetheart roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Salon Versailles of the Seaway Motor Inn. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull left for New York, the bride travelling in a green suit, and wearing black patent leather accessories, and a corsage-bouquet of yellow cymbidium orchids. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull will take up residence in Pierrefonds.
